

Fall Internship 2021

What is DMDP?

The Danida Market Development Partnerships Programme supports commercially oriented partnership projects in Danida's partner countries. DMDP projects are multi-stakeholder partnerships consisting of commercial and non-commercial partners who aim to develop viable business cases with strong development impact. The DMDP Secretariat is currently managing a portfolio of 34 projects. Please visit www.dmdp.dk for more information about the programme and the Secretariat.

Why choose an internship at DMDP?

As part of the DMDP team, you will gain a comprehensive understanding of how multi-stakeholder partnerships can contribute to different Sustainable Development Goals, with a specific focus on goals number 8, 13 and 17. The position provides an opportunity to work closely with competent and experienced consultants within the international development field. The DMDP projects provide a solid basis for interesting case material to possibly be applied in your studies.

You will have an opportunity to expand your professional network and access substantial knowledge and in-depth understanding of the project cycle of DMDP and insight into how the Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs work in its priority countries.

Are you passionate about international development and business?

Would you like to work with multi-stakeholder partnerships in developing countries?

Apply for an internship and join us for a semester full of learning opportunities!

Your qualifications

You are in the final year of your bachelor's degree or doing your master's degree in a relevant field (development studies, business and development, sustainable business etc). Apart from being an outgoing person with great communication skills, we expect that you have:

- Previous work experience from student jobs, volunteer work or internships
- Experience with sustainability strategies in the private sector, and with climate change and green transformation will be considered an asset
- Strong administrative skills and a structured approach to your work
- Analytical and methodological mindset
- The ability to prioritise, respect deadlines and assume responsibility for your assigned tasks
- A positive outlook, flexible to change and a willingness to learn
- Strong command of Microsoft Excel, and other Microsoft office skills
- Professional proficiency in Danish (or Nordic languages) and English. French is an advantage but not a requirement.

What do we expect from our intern?

The DMDP Secretariat is looking for an ambitious student, who is interested in pursuing a career in international business, sustainability and development, and who would like to gain sector insight and work experience. As an intern, you will work closely with the team of consultants in the DMDP Secretariat that is hosted in the Danish consultancy company Nordic Consulting Group. We expect our intern to provide agile support to the Secretariat and we offer a wide range of interesting tasks of varying character. These include but are not limited to:

- Maintaining and updating DMDP formats for applications and reporting
- Following up on partnership project results measurement
- Analytical work and drafting of inputs to the Secretariat
- Planning and organising meetings and webinars
- Drafting minutes of meetings
- Support for establishing procedures and systems for the operation of the DMDP Secretariat and following up with partnership projects
- Management and update of the Secretariat webpage (www.dmdp.dk)
- Produce news stories and other efforts to communicate learning and achievements of DMDP projects

Practical information:

The internship is a full-time position (37 hours/week) from 1 August 2021 to 31 January 2022.

You will receive compensation of up to 5000 DKK a month.

To apply:

Please send your application and CV to dmdp@dmdp.dk as soon as possible and at the latest by 2nd June 8 AM CEST. We will review the applications on a rolling basis and carry out interviews when we have received relevant applicants.

Should you have any clarifying questions please do not hesitate to contact us using the same email address. Also, please visit www.dmdp.dk for more information on the DMDP programme.
